

The domestic economy: Ariana looks to the future

July 1st, 2006 - Afghanistan's national airline, Ariana, has struggled in recent years, owing to its outdated stock and shortage of skilled staff. It was recently included in an EU blacklist of unsafe airlines, and UN employees are not allowed to use it. However, the company's president, Mohammad Nadir Atash, a .....Purchase single article: The domestic economy: Ariana looks to the future From: Country Report Afghanistan July 2006 Article size: 375 words Price: US $19
